

Preparing to Stand Ministries presents:

A Night in the Woods

— a Crash Course in Wilderness Survival from an End-Time Christian Perspective —

Indepth Bible Studies on:

- When to “Flee to the Mountains”
- How the Prophecies Describe God’s People’s End-Time Wilderness Experience
- Spiritual Preparation for the End-Times

Wilderness Experience:

- Spend a full 24 hours in nature
- Eat wild edible plants
- Make fire with a fire-drill, (‘rubbing sticks together’)
- Learn how to keep from getting lost
- Sleep in a survival shelter
- Learn wilderness sanitation and hygiene
- Make useful things from what nature provides
- Learn what to put in your survival kit
- Have skills to share with others

When: 10:00 a.m. Sabbath morning April 28, 2018 through mid-morning on Sunday April 29

Cost: There is no charge for this program. However it is anticipated that those who attend will make a donation to help cover expenses and to further this ministry

Bring: Warm rugged clothing, and your survival kit / ‘grab & go’ pack —if you have one, (it’s OK if you don’t have a survival kit, this would just be a good time to practice with it); at least bring: a sleeping bag, a water bottle, your Bible, and something to write with; you may also want to bring: note-taking materials, a camera, and a lawn chair; all other necessary materials, food, and equipment will be provided.

Attendance Limited to 10 Participants

Location: near Mariposa, California —directions given upon registration
